24/5th Nov 97

From the L.D.O.

I have the honor to submit for sanction of Government an estimate amounting to Rs 65 for Watchmen to look after the European Infantry buildings vacated by the South Staffordshire Regiment at Commanore.

These buildings were taken over charge on the 23^d October from the Military Department in Compliance with the Station Order N^o 1038 dated 19th October 1897 herewith submitted

The buildings being scattered over a distance of 3 furlongs, 3 Watchmen are considered necessary. A statement of the buildings shewing the charge of each Watchman is herewith sent also a letter from the Sub D^e Officer explaining the necessity for that number of Watchman.

I have the honor to be
Sir, your Most O^bd^t Servant.
