I will undertake to carry on the work of Major Waller's office if I am appointed to officiate for him in addition to my own duties - on the understanding that he will carry on my work when, as I hope on his return, I take a month's privilege leave: and I would ask that this may be made clear when forwarding Major Waller's application to Govt.

The office seems to be doing all that it is possible to do to delay this. Why could not this have been shown to Major Waller before passing Mr. Denney's remarks back to Collyer? Do so now. and D. will disagree if it from London, after settling something or other with Major Waller

SIR,

- I am directed to forward an application from Major S.A. Walker R.E. Examinee R.E. Accts Madras for a month's privilege leave from 15th October next.
1. It will be necessary to send another Officer to replace Major Walker
 2. The grant of the leave is recommended & this Govt of Madras if another Officer can be found to replace Major Walker.

Issue revised draft
J.H. 5/10/97

A.R. What Dy. and Asst. Examinee are attached to Major Walker and to his railway?

Major Walker has only one Dy. at Trichinopoly. Mr. C.S.P. Sridhar his Head Accountant in the Madras Office is Mr. Boddiefield who has been there once acting for the Dy. at Trichy when that Officer acted for the Examinee at Madras. There is also an accountant attached to the Audit Office of the Madras Railway.

I should like Mr. Denney to see this before it goes out, as I fancy that the Govt. of India will make trouble about the substitute. Perhaps Mr. Denney can help in the matter. If not, the letter should come on one drafted.
