GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

Bombay Castle, 29th September 1897.

No. 5279—3434-P.—His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased, under Act III of 1897, to apply Rule 29 of the General Plague Rules to the City and Island of Bombay, and to declare that the powers of a Commissioner under that rule shall be exercised by the Bombay Plague Committee by whom the requisite Plague authorities shall be appointed and all requisite instructions shall be given.

2. Rule 29 of the General Plague Rules is as follows :—

Plague authorities specially appointed by a Commissioner for this purpose are authorized to prevent the passage of suspicious persons from any town, village or local area, or into any town, village or local area to which this rule may be applied by the Commissioner, unless such persons have been detained in a place of observation for a period prescribed by the Commissioner, and unless, if arrangements for disinfection of their clothing, baggage, &c., have been made under the Commissioner's orders, such disinfection has been effected. Such Plague authorities shall have the widest discretionary power, subject to the general or special orders of the Commissioner, to decide what persons shall be considered "suspicious" for the purposes of this rule. So long as he remains in a place of observation under this rule no person shall be allowed to communicate, except with the permission of the Plague authority, with persons outside the limits of the place. He shall obey such orders as may be issued by the Plague authority for the cleanliness or protection from infection of the persons, property or quarters of the persons detained.

By order of His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor in Council,

J. DEC. ATKINS,
Secretary to Government.
