SUBJECT.

Declining to sanction the reemployment of the pensioners P. Venkataswamy and three others in the Bezawada - Madras Railway, observing that there is no objection to the reemployment of the pensioner Ahmed Beg subject to the condition that his pay & pension do not exceed his former pay, and directing that the amounts irregularly drawn by the pensioners be written off the accounts.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Para. 1. From letter No. A/2454/250A dated 28 April 1897 from the Engineer-in-Chief, Bezinada-Madras Railway which forms one of the Enclosures to the Endorsement under reply, it is apparent that the posts in which the pensioners were re-employed, are not bona-fide temporary appointments lasting for not more than a year. The re-employment cannot therefore fall under Article 579 of the Civil Service Regulations and article 577 (ii) seems therefore to be ^{the} proper rule which should apply to the case. Accordingly the amounts overdrawn by the pensioners as given in the statement in the margin should ordinarily be recovered.

Order thereon of 12th October 1897 N. 775.

The Government does not consider that "strong public grounds" exist which justify the re-employment of P. Venkataswamy, S. Veraswamy, & S. Lakshminayya. Their retention in the service is therefore inadmissible with reference to the provisions of Article 576 of the C. I. R. But as their services have already been dispensed with, the the amounts of pension irregularly drawn by them will be written off the accounts.

2. The case of Ahmed Beg, who was granted an invalid pension, is governed by Article 574 of the C. I. R. & there is therefore no objection to his re-employment subject to the condition that the sum total of his pension & pay does not exceed the pay which he was drawing at the time when he was invalided. It is observed that his services have also been dispensed with.

3. In the case of Shait Ali also, who was granted a retiring pension, no strong public grounds exist which justify his re-employment. His retention in the service is therefore inadmissible with reference to the provisions of Article 576 C. I. R.; & his services must at once be dispensed with. The amount of pension irregularly drawn by him will, however, be written off the accounts.
