[Despatch Abstract.]

Inferior Servants. Approving the action of the Examiners in having passed the pay of certain unpassed — and Compts, to officers of the Dept.
with remarks and for guidance that officers note sufficiency in the issue of instructions to heads of offices that as the names of inferior servants are not entered in Salary bills, they are responsible that none but passed men are entertained.

READ—the following paper:—

Office-note from the Examiner of Public Works Accounts, dated Madras, 18th February 1897, No. 75 A.

Inferior servants have been appointed in some offices, who have not passed the Primary Examination referred to in the Fort St. George Gazette, dated 21st April 1896, Part I B, page 153. I have passed the pay of such, as the men must be paid, and, drawing attention to the Public Service notification in question, have instructed the officers concerned that the services of unpassed men so appointed must be dispensed with.

2. I trust Government will approve of this procedure, and would suggest the issue of instructions to all heads of offices that as the names of inferior servants are not entered in salary bills, they are responsible that none but passed men are entertained, and that the rules apply to all appointments pensionable or non-pensionable, temporary or acting.

ORDER—No. 974 W., dated 6th April 1897.

The Examiner's action is approved. His note will be communicated to all officers of the Public Works Department for information and guidance, subject to the following remarks:—

(1) Under clause (3), article 3 of the Public Service notification, the provisions of article (1) are not applicable to acting appointments which do not exceed three months in duration, provided the sanction of the Superintending Engineer is obtained before any unpassed man is appointed.

(2) Under article 4, pensioners and reservists of the native army are not required to have passed any test before appointment to inferior service.
