REGISTRATION DEPARTMENT.

G.No. 5909

From

The Honourable P. Rajaratna Mudaliyar,

Dewan Bahadur,

Inspector-General of Registration,

Madras,

To

The Honourable Mr. J.F. Price, C.S.I.,

Chief Secretary to Government,

Ootacamund.

Madras, 29th. September 1897.

Sir,

The District Registrar of Tinnevely brings to notice that parties resorting for registration are put to considerable inconvenience owing to the absence of "ryots' sheds" or other accommodation for them in registration offices in the district and also to want of urinals, and requests that sanction may be obtained for adding a tiled shed and a urinal to the Sub-registrar's office at Rajapalayam, for the construction of which funds have been allotted in the budget of 1897-98.

2. The office at Rajapalayam is to be on the standard design approved for larger offices in G.O., No. 1520 W, dated 15th. May 1891, and the accommodation in the verandah in front of the office, which measures 22 feet by $7\frac{1}{4}$ feet, is found entirely insufficient to afford proper protection against sun and rain for the large number of people attending the office. It seemed to me that it would be cheaper to extend the verandah or add a second sloped verandah on another side of the building, than to construct a separate tiled shed for parties under Petty Construction and Repairs, as directed in G.O., No. 406, Judicial, dated 3rd. March 1892, and I accordingly desired the District Registrar to address
