to report on the Vijay Harbours, long after he had severed his connection with the Madras Harbour Works.

After inspecting the Vijayapattinam Harbours,
he returned to England, & submitted his report & plans there to the Secy of State, who forwarded them to the G. of S. It is possible that he kept copies, but it is understood that he did some time back.

Submitted - apparently nothing more can be done than to record this letter, & send it to the
Hon. Mr Bliss for information.

Yes, nothing else can be done. On them the opinion of the Harbours Commission, perhaps they are in the States for this
