Note by C.E.

Note. ~~for orders~~

The Chief Secretary to Government intimates by telephone that -- the Government of India has reduced the budget grant for 1897-98 under 45. Provincial Civil Works by 3.50 lakhs, and desires that the proposals for expenditure should be revised accordingly.

2. The preliminary budget under this head for 1897-98 has been prepared for 21.91 lakhs, and the reduction now advised will bring it ---- down to 18.41 lakhs.

3. As the provision for works in progress cannot be cut down without loss to the state, and that for Repairs is absolutely necessary to -- keep works in good order, the sums provided under the above heads in the preliminary budget will be retained as they are. The sums allotted for minor works under several heads having been already taken at very low figures, they are not susceptible of any further reduction.
