READ—the following paper :—

From G. B. LAMBERT, Esq., Executive Engineer, North Arcot Division, to the Superintending Engineer, IV Circle, dated 18th February 1897, No. 82 S.E.

With reference to your No. 604/N.A. of 31st December 1896, on G.O., No. 3549 W. of 11th idem, I have the honour to report that I find from the records that the quarters for the sergeant instructor of the Madras Railway Volunteers and its out-offices were handed over to this department in the beginning of June 1895. Repairs have since been carried out by this department.

2. The sergeant instructor's quarters continue to be used as such. They include the soldiers' rest-house, cook-room, privy and godown. The building known as Superintendent's camp quarters was apparently demolished some time ago.

3. The other military buildings at Arkonam, the charge of which was assumed by the Public Works Department under G.O., No. 1014 W. of 3rd May 1895, are now utilized as a bungalow for inspection purposes. The buildings are: subsidiary jail converted into an inspection bungalow, cook-room used as such, hospital occupied sometimes by subordinates on inspection, ryot shed converted into stables, jail latrine, public latrine.

4. It is useful and convenient to have an inspection bungalow at Arkonam, and the subsidiary jail, which is in good order, might be retained as such. The cook-room and stables (ryots' shed) might also be retained, but the hospital and two latrines might be dismantled and the materials sold by public auction.

No. 102/W.

Submitted to the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department, with reference to paragraph 2 of G.O., No. 3549 W., dated 11th December 1896, with an intimation that the undersigned approves of the proposals of the Executive Engineer.

21st February 1897.

(Signed) J. HANNAN,
Suptg. Engineer, IV Circle.

ORDER—No. 826 W., dated 22nd March 1897.
