Mr Herbert Chas. Patch.

Dear Sir

We have much pleasure in testifying that on the several occasions you were Superintending the erection of our new buildings on behalf of Messrs Ostreicher & Co the work progressed in a most satisfactory manner.

Yours faithfully,
(Signed) W. G. Smith & Co

Madras 9th February 1897.
Mount Road.

Mr Bertie Patch supervised the Large Building which was erected in 1889 & 1891 by Messrs Ostreicher & Co, he gave me entire satisfaction in carrying out the work. I consider him a fair Draughtsman and capable to undertake the management of similar structures.

(Signed) G. W. Taylor
Late Superintendent

This is to certify that Mr C. Patch had been our Assistant for many years past, and has Superintended our Buildings, he is a good Estimate maker and Draughtsman, and has a good general knowledge of Mechanics, and Electrical works, has put up Electric Bells, in several places, where we took contracts - he is now leaving us, as we are not doing much business, owing to failing health, and age of our Principal. We give him this certificate with pleasure, and hope he will succeed in getting a good appointment.

(Signed) Ostreicher & Co

Madras 1st February 1897.

Mr Bertie Patch has been associated with me in connection with several works in Madras (during the past three years) the construction of which I supervised.

He has shown himself to be quite up to his work, and in electrical business he is extremely good, he is very hard working and has been of great assistance.

(Signed) Jas Colman. Lieut.
(Late Asst. Engineer I.M.D.)
