withdrawing the orders regarding restriction of expenditure as regards works constructed from Provincial and Local Funds I am directed to explain that although the present orders may be considered as actually removing the restriction of outlay from Provincial and Local Funds yet it is desirable that the withdrawals from Treasury should for the present be kept as low as is consistent with adherence to the Budget programme of expenditure.

2. As regards Imperial expenditure orders will shortly follow.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

E. S. S. S.
