G.O., No. 1206 W

DATED 20 Mar 98

[Despatch Abstract.]

Col A.W. Smart R.E., Considering that Col Smart's special duties involve no increase of labour or responsibility in comparison with those of his regular appointment and that Govt is not prepared to move the Govt of India for the grant of a deputation allowance to him.

27/3/98

C. No. 3539 & office note from E. J.

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR.

THE HON'BLE SIR HENRY BLISS, K.C.T.E.

THE HON'BLE MR. GROSE, C.T.E.

SUBJECT.

Application from Col. Smart
for deputation allowance.

FOR ORDERS.

Col. Smart, who has been on special duty in connection with the completion estimates of the Law-
very Delta System since the 14th December 1895, applies for sanction
to his drawing deputation allowance,
under Article 98 of the Civil Service Regulations, and, in support of his claim, instances the case of Mr. Ross of the I. C. S., who has been granted a deputation allowance of Rs 10 per day for his special duty in connection with the Malabar Tenancy Bill.

Under Article 98 of the Civil Service Regulations, deputation allowance may be granted when the duties of the officer on deputation involve a decided increase of work or responsibility in comparison with the duties of his regular appointment.

or require a change of station. The deputation allowance may not, except in special cases and with the special sanction of the Govt. of India, exceed one fifth of the salary or Rs 10 a day whichever is less.

Nothing was said regarding the grant of a deputation allowance to Col. Smart when the Govt. of India was asked to sanction his deputation, vide G. O. Nos: 922 Wd/14^{March} February, 1896 and 890 Id/28th October, 1896, or when that Govt. and the Secretary of State sanctioned the deputation, vide G. O. Nos: 401 Wd/10 February, 1897, and 1335 Wd/21 May, 1897. Apparently, the question of allowance did not then arise, as it was not considered that Col. Smart's duties would be more onerous or responsible than those of a Suptg. Engineer in charge of an ordinary P. W. Circle.

The Chief Engineer for Irrigation to whom the question was referred for opinion considers that Col. Smart's duties involve no increase of labour or responsibility in comparison with the duties of his regular appointment, and I do not therefore see any reason to move the Govt. of India on the subject.

Your Office Note No. 2144 C dated

15th. April 1898.

The grant of a deputation allowance depends on whether Colonel Smart's duties involved a decided increase of work or responsibility in comparison with the duties of his regular appointment, or required a change of station, and this is entirely a matter for government to decide, vide C.S.R. article 98.

2. As nothing was said regarding the grant of a deputation allowance when Colonel Smart's deputation was sanctioned by Her Majesty's Secretary of State and the Government of India (vide G.O. No. 1335 W dated 21st. May 1897), the orders of the Government of India should be obtained should Government desire to support this application
