in 1897-98 by a credit of Rs 700, the sale proceeds of furniture in 1896-97. The actual expenditure on furniture appears to have been only Rs 3411-10-1. The grant was exceeded by Rs 314 owing to no less a sum than Rs 5102-5-8, expenditure on mats & chairs, being written back against the furniture grant. If the S. & D. agree finally to the proposal to charge the cost of chairs to "works", a large portion of the Rs 5102 will probably be available to enhance the furniture grant in 1898-99.
