Examiner P.W. Accounts.

Note-1. Sergeant England, a

Military student of the College of Engineering, was appointed apprentice overseer from the 1st January 1898, and posted to the Consulting Architect division. The results of the final college examination, which took place in December 1897, were not declared until near the end of January, and Sergeant England thus did not join his division until 1st February.

A Soldier

Soldier students of the college, however, become apprentice overseers in the last year of their training (para 54 chapter II volume I P.W. Code), and are thus entitled to their allowances from the beginning of the year. They draw their regimental pay as soldiers and receive in addition a staff allowance from the P.W.D. - sufficient to bring their total pay up to Rs. 80 per mensem. The Examiner agrees in the view that these men should get their pay from the beginning of their apprentice year, without regard to the actual date of joining, but he wants an Order of Government authorising this. It is proposed to order accordingly.

The Examiner raises the further question as to whether the staff allowance should be chargeable to the P.W. Department or to the College.

The note to para 54, chapter II ^{as formerly} Vol I P.W. Code, worded, directed that these staff allowances should be debited to the P.W. Dept., but under a recent standing order, the allowances of Military apprentices under the Govt. of India are now chargeable to the Thomason College Rurki. The Examiner inquires whether a corresponding change should be made here.

It is not known under what - (circumstances

circumstances the change of procedure was ordered by the Government of India with regard to military men appointed from the Rurki College. In this Presidency the staff allowance of Military apprentices, ^{or civil students} as well as the stipends undergoing practical training on works, have always been paid by the P.W. Dept. This point was discussed by the committee of 1880-81 which was assembled to revise the rules for the constitution of the College, and it was decided that as the work of military apprentices and civil students undergoing practical training would to a certain extent be remunerative to the Department, ^x their allowances should be debited to the Public Works Department. There appears to be no reason why this practice should now be altered. In any case the charge would fall against Provincial funds and to transfer it to the College, would only hamper the latter institution. There is no doubt that Ex. Engineers derive some help from the large number of students annually posted for training to the several divisions, and last year a number of the students made themselves

* Chief Engineer's Notification

8/3/98

Sergeant England was appointed Apprentice Overseer from 1st January^x, but he only joined the Division on the 1st of February '98. The balance of staff allowance under P.W. & Code I. II. 54 for January, 1898 has been passed provisionally pending approval of Government, and orders on this point are requested. Under ordinary circumstances (P.W. & Code I. IV. 77) the staff salary of an officer commences from the date on which he may enter upon the actual duties of his situation. This rule apparently does not apply to the case in point as Sergeant England presumably entered upon his 3rd or "Apprentice" year from 1st January 1898.

2. Under existing orders (G.O. No

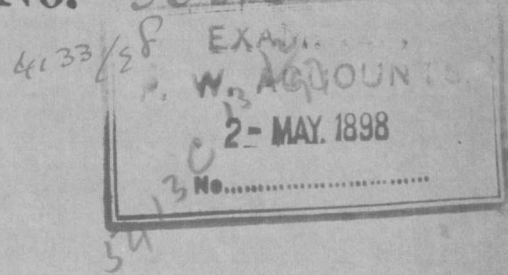

240815

2408 W dated 30th August ¹⁸⁸⁹ ~~1897~~ G.O.
 No 3099 W dated 1st November 1889.
 and Madras Code Chapter I. 1010 & 102) the staff allowance of apprentice overseers is borne by the P. W. & and not the College, and I would enquire whether these orders are to be considered to be still in force - From the note to para 54, Chap. II. Vol. I P. W.
 Code it will be noticed that such charges in the cases of students appointed from the Thomason Civil Engineering College Roorkee, are borne by that College.

To The Consulting Architect to Govt.

Sir,

I beg, respectfully, to state that I reported myself for duty at the Consulting Architect's office on the 1st Feb'y. in accordance with instructions received from the Principal, College of Engineering. The possible reason I did not receive orders earlier is that the results of the final Examinations were not published as early as usual. I would beg to point out that the question of pay does not appear to be affected by the date I joined the Division, since I was posted to the Department by an earlier order.

I beg to remain,

Sir,
