Note

In his office note of 26 May 1898, the Chief Engineer for Irrigation explains that the proposed transfer, to the Superintending Engineer, II Circle, of the immediate control over the special investigations in Nellore is in accordance with the intentions of the Government advisable

Office Note from E. J. 225.5.98

Dr.

Mr. Hesser, the officer appointed to investigate projects for extending irrigation in the Nellore dist., has hitherto been working under the immediate direction of the Chief Engineer for Irrigation, as ordered in para 3 of Co. No. 2676 W of 24.9.97. The latter officer now reports that the investigations have advanced so far that a scheme for irrigation from the Maneru is certain to be matured. He proposes, therefore, that the officer in charge of the investigations may, for the future, be placed under the orders of the S. E. II Circle. If this proposal is to be recommended to Govt. for sanction, it would be necessary to explain to His Excellency how the proposed arrangement is preferable to the existing one.

For orders. J.
E. J. Hesser explains the necessity for the change, & that the present arrangement was only intended to be a draft, temporary. A draft G.O. approving E. J. Hesser's recommendation can be submitted for approval. ACK office selected for special duty on investigations

arrangement if it were
being solicited for -
As it is now certain that a scheme for irrigation

be matured I request
placing Mr. Wooler under the S. S. II Circle - Some correspondence
between my office and the Supd Eng^r on the
project, and as soon as Mr. Wooler is placed under the orders of the S. S. the latter will be furnished with copies of the correspondence that has taken place with Mr. Wooler regarding the
