OFFICE NOTE No. 640 $\frac{A}{2}$

To

W.

G.O. No. 1030 W dated 25th. April 1898.

The orders of the Government of India are that

(1) That they agree to forego the recovery of the additional pay erroneously passed to the peripatetic Accountants

(2) that ~~the~~ temporary promotions made in the places of the above Accountants were inadmissible, and that the amounts paid must accordingly be retrenched.

2. Up to September 1897 pay and travelling allowance was erroneously passed to the peripatetic Accountants noted in the margin as intimated in my Office Note No. 878 A/E dated 12th. November 1897; no excess amounts were audited in October 1897 and following months, and the sums erroneously passed were subsequently retrenched.

3. If the correct procedure had been followed as indicated in para 3 of

T. Jeyram Chetty
Salary	212-14-5
Travelling allowance	72- 6-0
	285- 4-5
S. Sankara Row
Salary	30-0-0
T. K. Raghavendra Row
Salary	30-0-0
Mr. G. Pereira
Salary	166-4-7
Travelling allowance	35-8-0
	201-12-7
Grand total	547-1-0

of the Government of India letter, the Accountants would have been entitled to deputation allowance under article 98 C.S.R as noted below.

T. Jeyram Chetty

24th. May 1897 to 4th. January 1898	158 II-4
1898 at Rs. 20 per mensem
2nd. March 1898 to 18th. March 1898	do.
5th. January 1898 to 1st. March 1898	at 30 per mensem
	57 -I -6
	215 -I2-I0

S. Sankara Row

13th. September 1897 to 6th. November 1897	at Rs. 20 per mensem	36-0-0
7th. November 1897 to 18th. January 1898	at Rs. 30 per mensem	71-6-8
		107-6-8

T. K. Raghavendra Row

13th. September 1897 to 19th. January 1898	at Rs. 20 per mensem	84-4-1
--	----------------------	--------

Mr. G. Pereira

25th. May 1897 to 3rd. September 1897	at Rs. 20 per mensem	66-8-3
---------------------------------------	----------------------	--------

4. In the case of Sankara Row and Raghavendra Row

as the amounts retrenched are less than the sums that would have been admissible to them had the correct procedure been followed, I would suggest suggest that the disallowance made be allowed to stand, and that the Accountants be allowed deputation allowance under article 98 C.S.R. as noted in para 3 against their names

5. In the case of Messrs.

Jeyram Chetty and

Mr. G. Pereira

as the amounts retrenched (although subsequently disallowed and in former case were partly, and in latter case not refunded) are more than what would have been admissible under article 98 C.S.R., the disallowance can now be remitted in accordance with the Government of India ruling.

6. Regarding para 5 of the Government of India letter, I beg to state that all the excess payments due to temporary promotions made in the room of the men so deputed were subsequently retrenched and fully recovered, and no further orders are necessary.

7. The statement of proposed changes received with your office note No. 2561 C dated 17th. May 1898 is returned as no revision is necessary. The first 6 events in that statement have been notified under the approval conveyed in G.O. No. 3043 W dated 1st. November 1897 vide my Office Note No. 870 A/E dated 10th. November 1897, and the last event with reference to para 2 of your Office Note No. 375 C dated 20th.

20th. January 1898. The only events requiring notification are those connected connected with the promotion of Sankara Row to Accountant 5th. grade temporary rank with effect from 3rd.
August 1897, and his reversion to 6th.
grade with effect from 13th. September 1897.
