of accounts would suffice for the preparation of ordinary revenue accounts. Thereupon the examiner proposed that the accountant lent to the Board should be retransferred to Govt. service from 1st July and this proposal was approved by Govt. The examiner now recommends the nomination of clerk Lokiah for the Board on Rs 70 per mensem and requests the approval of Govt. thereto. This nomination appears to have been approved by the Board, and may therefore be confirmed by Govt.

In continuation of para 4 of my O.N. No. 719 H/E dated 10th June 1898 I beg to recommend that D.
Lokiah, Temporary Accounts Clerk
Secretary Division, be offered to the Harbour Trust Board on Rs 70/- per month plus contribution, which in his case, will amount to Rs $\frac{34}{8}$
or Rs 4-4-0.

2 - D. Lokia is well reported on, and is a capable and experienced Accounts Clerk, and is I consider quite able to cope with the Accounts work of the Engineers Office Harbour Trust Board -

3. If this arrangement is approved, the payment on account of D. Lokiah will be about half the amount the Board have to pay for the present Accountant of the Engineer's Office (C. R. Krishna Rao), ^{and} the Chairman is understood to be willing to accept any nomination if Government approve.

4 - The favour of a very early reply is solicited.
