was placed in charge of the accounts of both the P.W. Workshops & Stores, which are ordinary two separate divisions as regards accounts work, & it is proposed to remunerate him for his extra duty by this temporary step of promotion, which will cause no extra expense to Govt.

Mr. Williams has 7 men above him in the 7 grade, but the Examiner points out that the promotion is special & temporary, so that it will not permanently affect the prospects of the senior men. It is proposed to mention this application.

The Examiner of

The General Superintendent, P.W. Workshops & Stores.

Sir,

Owing to the great demands for accountants during the recent famine, it was found necessary to remove Mr E. L. Taylor B.A., from the Public Works Workshops, and to place me in charge of the accounts of that Division "in addition to my own duties", as accountant of Public Works Stores, from the 23rd July 1897, vide Page 829, Part II of Fort St. George Gazette, dated 20th July 1897.

2. As the work of both these divisions had greatly increased at the time owing to famine, the extra charge entailed a very substantial increase of my responsibility as well as additional work. I therefore beg that you will be pleased to apply to Government on my behalf for a charge allowance under G.S.R. art. 176, for the period of about ten months, that I have been in charge of the two divisions.

3. That an increase of work in these divisions has taken place, will be borne out by the fact that the General Superintendent has found it necessary to apply for an additional staff of four clerks for the office.

4. I would also state that a saving of Rs 130/- per mensem has accrued to Government, during the past ten months on account of the Accounts Establishment of these divisions, and that, had an accountant been appointed appointed to the independent charge of the P.W. Workshops, the cost would have been increased by at least Rs 25/- owing to the Presidency Allowance and House Rent of the incumbent, while my responsibility and work would have been very considerably reduced.

5. I beg that you will favourably consider the above mentioned facts and take such action as you may deem fit.

I beg to remain
