ENCLOSURE.

Clause 94 of India Army Circulars of the 1st June 1898.

In accordance with the instructions received from the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India, it is hereby notified that a non-continuous service officer of Royal Engineers, if under British service leave rules, will be allowed, whether in civil or military employ, to take leave once, for one year as if under the leave rules of the Staff Corps, either at the end of his first tour of service in India, or later, if he remains in India, subject to the condition that he returns to duty in India before the end of the year, or within eighteen months in case he receives an extension of leave under paragraph 2. Any officer not so returning will be required to refund the difference between his leave pay and the pay he would have received under the rules applicable to officers of the British Army serving in India. Service for calculating leave pay will reckon from date of first commission.

2. Any extension of leave beyond the one year, either on urgent private affairs or on medical certificate, will be on British pay. After eighteen months' leave in all, an officer will, if he does not return to India, cease to be on the Indian establishment.

3. Officers of Royal Engineers drawing leave pay under the Staff Corps rules will be in the same position as Staff Corps officers in regard to passage to and from England. A subaltern going home on medical certificate will be entitled to passage home, but not to passage back. No other officer will be entitled to passage either way; but an officer who does not return to India, and has consequently to refund the difference of pay, will be entitled to passage money to England at Indian rates in reduction of the amount to be refunded. An officer on leave on medical certificate who obtains an extension on British pay, will, if able to return within the period of eighteen months, be entitled to passage to India.
