From J. B. BRUNYATE, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department (Leave and Leave Allowances), to all Accountants-General and Comptrollers, dated Simla, the 1st July 1898, No. 2901-P.

The Government of India have had under consideration the question whether grade promotions should be allowed to an officer while on furlough, during the period he receives special absentee allowances under the orders conveyed in the Resolutions in this department, Nos. 5047-P. and 315-P., dated, respectively, the 15th November 1897 and 22nd January 1898, and, if so, whether it will be necessary to revert a junior officer in each case for the period for which the special allowances are drawn.

2. I am directed to inform you that the Government of India are pleased to decide that the allowances of the officers on leave must be determined exactly as if they were on privilege leave during the period of the leave which is governed by the Resolution in this department, No. 5047-P., dated 15th November 1897, i.e., they will receive the benefit of promotions as if on privilege leave in cases where such promotions are allowed by Local Governments, and will be similarly liable to revert. But the promotions and reversions assumed for the purpose of calculating the leave allowances, should not be allowed to affect officers on duty who will draw salaries as if the officers on leave were receiving ordinary furlough allowances.

3. Any revision of the allowances that may be necessary in consequence of the promotion and reversion of the officers on leave, should be effected as soon as possible after the expiration of the period for which special allowances are admissible, and I am to request that amended last pay certificates showing the adjustments necessary may be prepared and forwarded to this department for transmission to the India Office as soon as the period during which special leave allowances are drawn expires in each instance.

Copy forwarded to the several departments of the Government of India; to all Local Governments and Administrations and to the heads of departments under the Finance Department.
