Ver

With reference to your letter No. 7542n dated 16th June 1898, I have the honor to state that the relinquished police station houses at Chullimadai and Chammanam-pathi are required for this Department and to request that they may be made over to the Tahildar of Palghat.

I have &c

(20) V. Rajagobala Chetty. for acting Collector.

Letter from C. W. Wood Esq.
Executive Engineer, West Coast Div., No. $\frac{431}{S. E.}$ dated 5th August 1898.

Enclosure 1

Vide copy of Collector's Letter No. 23 attached;
d/2nd Aug/98.

I have the honour to request sanction to the transfer to the Revenue Department of the Police station houses at Chullimadai and Chamrampathy, which have been relinquished by the Police Department.

2. The former is not borne on the Register of buildings maintained in this office but has been taken charge of by this Department since it was abandoned by the Police.
The latter is No. 9 in the Register, Provincial Calicut Taluk.

P.W. Cuo. 6706 with draft order received for Counter initials

To Under Secretary

In the draft order of the P.W.D received for counter initials, it is proposed to transfer to the Revenue Dept the Police Station houses at Chullimadai and Channampate, in the Malabar District, which have been relinquished by the Police Dept. The transfer is in compliance with the request of the Collector, but the Collector's letter asking for the transfer of the buildings does not state the purpose for which they are required by the Rev. Dept. They are to be handed over to the

Tahsildar

Tahsildar of Palghat.
