The S. E. now reports that the watchmen at Kurnool are frequently employed in cleaning machinery and tools and counting them, in addition to looking after Famine tools, and thus have more work and responsibility than ordinary watchmen in charge of bungalows. As regards the watchmen at Krishnapuram, it is explained that the men have to carry tappals and are also in charge of the sewing shivers. He adds that, since the M. S. & Co. Co's days, they have been paid at that rate. The S. E. states that the two watchmen sanctioned for looking after the stores at Kuddapah are required at Krishnapuram where the articles have been stored, and requests that an erratum may be issued. As K J. 9. 85. CR P.
