To

W.

In the proposal statements which were sent with my Office Note No. 869 A/E dated 16th. July 1898, C.V. Ramiengar, officiating accountant, was entered as to be reverted to Accounts clerk with effect from date of T. Gondiah Chetty's relief under the Travancore Government on retransfer to British service viz: 9th. July 1898.

2. C.V. Ramiengar who was in charge of the accounts of the Tinnevely Division was, however, not relieved of his duties till the afternoon of the 25th. July 1898, and as there was a joining time vacancy due to the re-transfer to British service of M.R. Ry C.R. Kritna Rao from the Madras Harbour Trust Board and the move of accountants consequent thereon, officiating allowance as accountant has been passed to Ramiengar up to and including the 25th. July 1898.

2. I would ask that the approval of Government to my action may be
