Some time about June

or between then & March, we wrote to India what

Mr. Hamilton's house

rent at Madras, & they replied that they would consider the case.

I have seen nothing further about this.

If they have not replied,

remind them

In the letter you refer to the Govt. of India was advised not only about house rent, but also about the grant of local allowance from the date of the application therefor. The Govt. of India replied about July last, that they could not modify the decision already given in regard to local allowances, but that separate orders would issue in regard to the house rent. This letter from the Govt. of India was commu-
