To

The Examiner, P.W. Accts.

Note. The facts of the case are detailed in the Examiner's note.
The reversion of Mr. Porrett from Temporary Accountant on Rs 60 per mensem to Offg. Accountant 8th Grade was approved in G.O.
No. 1729 W dated 8th July 1898.

As officiating Accountant
Mr. Porrett was allowed his estab.
stipend pay, Rs 20, + an officiating allowance of Rs 38 $\frac{1}{2}$ per mensem.
The latter sum was calculated on

As Mr Porrett's officiating appointment was in the chain of arrangements made in consequence of an accountant being on long leave, the Examiner requests order to appoint him a temporary accountant on Rs 60, with effect from the 1st July to the 1st Aug. 1898 (inclusive). To this there is no objection. APK 7.11.98.

Copy of endorsement from R.N. Burn, Esquire, Officiating Accountant General, Public Works Department, to the Examiner P.W. Accounts, Madras and Coorg, No. 1211 E dated 7th. October 1898.

The under-mentioned paper is forwarded to the Examiner of Public Works Accounts, Madras, for information and guidance, in reply to his letter No. 1071 A.E. dated 12th. September 1898, and in supersession of previous orders. The officiating allowance of clerks officiating for accountants in Madras should be based on the minimum pay of the lowest grade.

Document referred to.

Copy of a letter No. 1198 E dated 3rd. October 1898 to the Examiner of Telegraph Accounts regarding the officiating allowance admissible to a clerk officiating for an accountant and the appointment of clerks as temporary accountants in long leave vacancies.

Copy of a letter No. 1198 E, dated the 3rd. October 1898, from the Accountant General, Public Works Department, to the Examiner of Telegraph Accounts, Calcutta.

In reply to your letter No. 1751 C.R. dated 27th. May 1898,
I have the honor to state that a clerk appointed to officiate as an accountant is entitled to an officiating allowance of 1/5 of Rs. 80 (the minimum pay of an accountant 4th. grade) in addition to the pay of his substantive appointment, and that the practice of calculating the officiating allowance on the mean pay of all the grades should be discontinued in future.

2. There is, however, no objection to a clerk being appointed a temporary accountant in a long leave vacancy and as you are of opinion that Mr. Stephens would be insufficiently remunerated by a lower salary than Rs. 80/- per mensem it is open to you to ask the Director General of Telegraphs, under Public Works Department Code Volume I Chapter I para 27, to sanction his appointment as a Temporary Accountant on that pay.

OFFICE NOTE No. 1253 $\frac{A}{2}$

To

W.

In G.O.No.1729 W dated 8th.July 1898 the approval of Government was intimated to the reversion of Mr.J.N. Porrett from temporary accountant (temporary establishment) on Rs.60 per mensem to officiating accountant 8th. grade with effect from 1st.July 1898, the date on which M.R.Ry C.R.Kristna Rao reverted from the Harbour Trust Board, to his substantive appointment as accountant 7th.grade in Government service.

2. Under articles 155,156 and 161 (i) of the C.S.R., the officiating allowance admissible to Mr.Porrett was calculated on the average pay of the several grades of accountants, and he was allowed to draw, in addition to his substantive pay of Rs.20 per mensem, an acting allowance of Rs.38½ per mensem equal to 1/5th. of Rs.

$$\frac{400+300+250+200+150+100+80+60}{8}$$

3. As the rules on the subject as to the mode of calculation of acting allowance to clerks officiating as accountants did not appear to me to be clear, I considered it advisable to obtain an authoritative ruling for future guidance. I accordingly addressed the Accountant General, Public Works Department, and I enclose copy of his reply for your information.

5. The decision now communicated permits of officiating allowances being calculated only on the pay (Rs. 60 per mensem) of the lowest grade, but in a long leave vacancy, it allows the appointment of a temporary accountant on the pay of the lowest grade, and as Mr. Porrett's officiating appointment was in the chain of arrangements made in consequence of an accountant on long leave, I would request orders of Government sanctioning his appointment as temporary accountant on Rs. 60 per mensem with effect from 1st. July to 1st. August 1898 inclusive.
