repeated disobedience of orders and neglect of work - at the time of his dismissal, he was due to him for the period from 1st January to 8th February 1892.

Early in 1894, on a petition from the man, the Sup^t. Genl was requested to report on his case, & it then appeared that at the time of his dismissal, he had retained certain Govt. papers in his possession, in defiance of the Genl. Sup^t's orders. Failing their return, the balance of pay due to him was not disbursed. In August 1892, the Executive Sup^t asked the Sup^t. Genl permission to pay this money to the petitioner, as the papers in the possession of the latter were of no value to any one - the
the Ex. Sup^t to give the man a final warning to hand over the papers & receive the pay due to him He probably had not the papers to surrender, for he has not yet received his balance - He an endorsement from the Office dated 5.3.94, he was told that it was with him to obey the

the return of the papers, and to receive his pay - Since then he has sent a series of petitions to the Chief Sup^t, most of which were so unintelligible that they were never recorded - Recently, from personal representations made by
been ascertained that though claiming re-employment, his chief object is to obtain his amount of pay - It is recommended that the

be paid to him - the papers retained by him have been reported to be of no value, and no
their loss. The man is,
I believe, of unsound mind, & may be treated with compassion.
