The Jr. Secretary to the Govt. of India,
P. W. Dept.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 1704/E dated 14th October, 1898, sanctioning the grant of a special allowance of Rs 60 per mensem to ^{U. R. R. B.} Mr. Narasinga Rao, I am directed to state that the Examiner has now forwarded an application from Mr. E. L. Taylor, Accountant-5th Grade, for the grant of a similar allowance to him for the period ^{*} he was deputed

* 29th July 1897 to 26th Jan'y 1898

on Famine duty to the Kurnool Divisional Office as Accountant & Manager, and recommends that the sanction of the Govt. of India be applied for to the grant of a special allowance to Mr. Taylor ^{also} for the successful and satisfactory manner in which he conducted his duties.

2. Mr. Taylor's case is for the most part similar to that of ^{M.R.Ry.B.} ~~Mr.~~ Narasinga Rao. Owing to the rapid increase of work consequent on the famine, and to the large amount of arrears that had accumulated, Mr. Taylor was deputed to the Kurnool Divisional Office. He had a large staff of clerks & accountants to control & manage of the office, and his work and responsibilities were exceptionally heavy in comparison with the ordinary duties of an Accountant. The Ex. Engineer speaks in high terms of the services rendered by Mr. Taylor during the period of his deputation, & considers that he should be recompensed for his hard & successful work in his office.

3. Mr. Taylor's pay as an Accountant 5th Grade is Rs 150, and being employed in the Presidency Town at the time of his transfer, he too suffered suffered pecuniarily by being deprived of his Presidency allowance of Rs 30 per mensem & those next of Rs 10 during that period. I am accordingly to request that the Govt. of India may be moved to grant Mr. Taylor a special allowance of Rs 30 ^{per mensem}, being one-fifth of his pay, from the 29th July 1897 to the 26th Jan'y. 1898.

Thro:

Sir, I beg to request that you will be good enough to recommend me to Government for the grant of a deputation allowance, under Civil Service Regulations articles 94-98, for the period I served during the late famine, as Accountant & Manager of the Kurnool Divisional office, i.e. from 23^d July 1897 to 26 January 1898.

26 January 1878.

2. Owing to the rapid increase of work consequent on the famine, & to the large amount of arrears that had accumulated, I was deputed to the charge of the office. That I worked very hard to cope with the tasks I had before me, devoting most of my mornings & evenings as well as holidays to the benefit of Government, & that I succeeded in putting things into train before I left the division, the Executive Engineer, Kurnool division, will, I am sure, certify to. On my transfer from the division, the Exec: Engineer wrote to you strongly commending my work & also personally mentioned to me his appreciation of my services. Mr. A. R. de Flézel, the Exec: Engineer's personal assistant during the famine, & under whom I directly worked, states that he had received the greatest assistance from me + that I had managed + controlled the large staff of accountants + clerks with great tact. The extra office establishment entertained on account of the famine numbered 30 to 40 hands, + during the latter part of my service in the division four more accountants were applied for + sent to settle the discrepancies in the Tahsildars' accounts. These accountants received all their instructions from the divisional office + were sent thence to the headquarters of the Tahsildars to rectify their accounts. All this large establishment of clerks + accountants was controlled by me as Manager of the office, so that there can hardly be any doubt that both my work + responsibility were exceptionally heavy in comparison with the ordinary duties of an accountant.

3. I beg also to mention that during the period I worked on famine duty at Kurnool, I lost the Presidency allowance (£30 per mensem) + House rent (£10 per mensem) I was in receipt of in Madras prior to my transfer.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Ernest J. Taylor
