from the next six vacancies. The Examiner now points out that Mr. Humphreys is at present a Temporary Accountant on Rs 60 against the temporary sanction for the Light-House Division, and the Temporary Accountant sanctioned for the Light-House Division is outside the sanctioned scale of Permanent Accountants for this Presidency, he enquires, whether under the G.O. quoted, Mr Humphreys must revert to his permanent clerkship in the Examiner's office.

Govt: have already decided that in appointing Messrs Humphreys & Porrett to be Temporary Accountants, the Examiner ignored the order of this Govt: & the Govt: of India. Under these circumstances Mr Humphreys must be reverted, even though he is acting in an arrangement consequent on the creation of a temporary Accountantship outside the sanctioned scale of permanent Accountants.
