Judicial Department.

READ the following paper:—

From the Registrar, High Court of Judicature, Madras
Ref. on Cur. No. 2449 of 1897, dated 24th January 1898:-

The District Judge of Tanjore has reported that there is no accommodation provided for parties and witnesses in the District Munsiff's Court of Tiruturaipundi and recommends the construction of a pukka shed for the purpose. At present parties and witnesses in waiting crowd into the verandah of the Court-house within hearing of the witnesses under examination.

2. I am to say that the High Court considers that a shed such as that proposed by the District Judge should be provided and to request therefore that His Excellency the Governor in Council will be pleased to order the preparation of the necessary estimates by the Public Works Department.
