957 W dated 5th. April 1897.

2. The Accountant General, Public Works Department has asked me to submit for his approval a revised proposition statement for my permanent clerical establishment as soon as the existing pressure of work in my office due to famine abates, and when this is submitted I shall be in a better position to estimate my actual requirements for Temporary Establishment. In the meanwhile as the whole of the establishment referred to in para I will be needed for two months the sanction of Government is requested to enable me to pass their salary in audit.
