No. 2814.

From
G. J. T. Harris, Esq., Consulting Architect
to the Government of Madras,

To
The Chief Engineer
Public Works Department

Sir,

Enclosures.

I have the honour to state that according to G.O. No. 1886 dated the 24th Jan 1896, the buildings of the old women & children's Hospital were transferred to the Buckingham Canal Divⁿ, as that Division is abolished, the Executive Engineer Chingleput Division requests that this Division may resume charge of the building.

The building are now in the hands of the Municipality for plague purposes, by order No. 291 dated 29th January 1897.

Orders are solicited whether I am to take charge of the building and whether the cost of maintenance should be he met from P. W. D. funds.

Shew the honour to be
Sir
Your most obedient servants.

W. Barrett
Consulting Architect
to Governments.
