READ—the following paper:—

From J. S. WILSON, Esq., Executive Engineer, Kistna Eastern Division, to the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department (through the Superintending Engineer, II Circle), dated Bezwada, 3rd February 1898, No. 557.

With reference to your No. 84 C., dated 7th January 1898, I have the honour to state, that the only explanation I can give is, that I was not aware of the necessity for the submission of the new site-plan to your office for approval before beginning work. To the best of my recollection, the circumstance under which the site was changed were, that a site having been chosen, the land schedule, &c., were sent to the Revenue Department and that when everything was ready for the commencement of work, the site was suddenly changed by the Inspector-General of Registration after personal inspection. The work was then begun as soon as permission could be obtained for entering on the land. It was by no means anticipated that the change would cause an excess as the ground appeared to be of less value than the site originally selected, which was a house-building site in the main street of the village. There were other changes of site of Sub-Registrar's office about the same time which caused much delay, viz., Tirukkóyilúr and Kurinchippádi.
