with reference to
your note on the slip
in this file, flagged Q,
it is submitted that
precedent for permanent exemption from the exam. rules are very rare - the
only men who have been exempted in recent years, are temporary
clerks who arrived
at the Penryn Head
works. These men
had qualified under
the old rules, i.e. by passing the middle school exam, & while
they were in temp. employ,
the new rules came into operation the upper
secondary standard.
They were thus disqualified for permanent
posts, & they were

emptied on account
of the special nature of their service at Pango.

If it be desired
to ask a reconsideration
of the Bellamy Stone-Reaper case, it might be on the ground that the duties require a
man of experience as Stone-Reaper, & one
who can depend
long running, &
that he has already
proved his fitness
for the post, irrespective of educational tests.

W. R. Ransick is a
German man, &
because it is proposed
to increase his pay
permanently to $100
per month, exemption
from examination &
rules is required.

In December 1891,
he was exempted
only so far as his
app. on $50 per
month was concerned -

Again in Nov^r
temporarily to enable him to draw $100
per month on the German estab^t, &
he drew that rate of
pay until German
operation ceased.

His permanent
exemption to enable him
to draw $100 has been refused, & it is not
apparent what more
can be done for him.

Apparently W. H. I
but show how he
are to get round it.
This because he is a
hereditary man & wife?
Can't be even David
during the famine?
