From the Accountant-General, Madras, No. 675, dated 7th March 1898.

Order No. 272 dated 5th March 1898.

It would appear from the last two papers read above that the Government of India has fixed the budget grant for 1898-99 under 33 Famine Relief at 8.50 lakhs, following the details recorded in G.O. No. 39, Financial, dated 14th January 1898.

2. It is however observed that the grand total of 8.49 shown in the appendix to those proceedings includes a sum of .24 debitable to other services heads, while it does not take into account the provision of .10 for Flood charges sanctioned in G.O. No. 1079 Financial, dated 31st December 1897.

3. The distribution of the grant for 33 Famine Relief for 1898-99 will for the present remain as shown in the appendix to G.O. No. 39 Financial, dated 14th January 1898. The Revenue Department will be requested to consider whether a redistribution is called for in the light of later events.

4. Re-appropriation of the sum of .24 lakh will be made as necessity arises during the course of the year to meet the charges, if any, debitable to other service heads. The Accountant-General will be requested to report on this point in due course.

From the Accountant-General, Madras, No. 575, dated

1st March 1898.

Order No. 272 dated 1st March 1898.

It would appear from the last two papers read above that the Government of the India has fixed the budget for 1898-99 under 33 PARTIAL RULES at Rs. 50 lakhs, following the details recorded in G.O. No. 39, Financial, dated 1st January 1898.

It is however observed that the total of Rs. 40 lakhs shown in the appendix to these proceedings includes a sum of Rs. 24 lakhs to meet service needs, while it does not take into account the provision of 10 lakhs for flood charges.

The distinction of the fund for 33 PARTIAL RULES mentioned in G.O. No. 1072, Financial, dated 1st December 1897, for 1898-99 will for the present remain as shown in the appendix to G.O. No. 39, Financial, dated 1st January 1898. The Revenue Department will be requested to consider whether a redistribution is called for in the light of later events.

Re-estimation of the sum of Rs. 24 lakhs will be made as necessary during the course of the year to meet the charges, if any, attributable to other service needs. The Accountant-General will be requested to report on this point in due course.
