Repairing the bund	1,080
Constructing a weir	1,900

The Maunsingh Ghayi is formed by bunding across the Bahana Nalla near Khodasinghi. It irrigates directly the villages of Khodasinghi and Ampuva and the surplus from the tank irrigates the villages of Pothara, Dura, Ankoli and Gounji.

Owing to the insufficiency of surplus arrangements the tank has breached. It is proposed now to repair the breach, strengthen the bund and provide an additional escape. The tabular statement gives all necessary information. The tank being at the tail end of B branch, Ichchhapuram channel, it is proposed to retain it as a reservoir.
