READ—the following paper:—

From E. A. DENNYS, Esq., Examiner of Public Works Accounts, Madras and Coorg, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 27th April 1898, No. 533 A/E.

In continuation of my letter, No. 478 A/A., dated the 18th instant, on the subject of recent accounts inspections of Divisional officers by Mr. A. R. Kälberer, Deputy Examiner, I have the honour to report that, among other matters, it was observed that service-books generally showed a somewhat conspicuous want of neatness in being written up. The entries in some cases were cramped and written all over the page, and instances were noticed where the dates of return from leave had been omitted. Owing to the way some of the books have been kept it will, I gather, be a task of some difficulty to verify the services of the subordinates concerned when dealing with their pension or gratuity applications.

2. Under the circumstances mentioned, I would suggest that the attention of all Executive Engineers may be specially drawn to the rules (omitting the part relating to annual verification) which were circulated with G.O., No. 2172 W., dated the 9th August 1897.

ORDER—No. 1138 W., dated 9th May 1898.

Communicated to officers of the Public Works Department for information, with a request that this very important matter may receive, in future, the most careful attention.
