The entertainment of medical establishment at stations where a large body of workmen is collected together, is allowed by para 67 Chapter IV, vol I of the P.W. Code, and special allowances from Rs 10 to 25 may be granted to such medical subordinates for independent or other charges of more than ordinary importance, or when local circumstances afford just ground for increasing the emoluments, vide para 72 of the same chapter. The services of the hospital assistant referred to in the draft order, were required at the head works at Polandurai and Shatiatope, where large bodies of workmen were employed. The Surgeon-General to whom a reference was made as to whether cholera was prevalent at Shatiatope to such a degree as to justify the grant of an allowance of Rs 10 to the hospital assistant, reports that the allowance should be granted under Appendix B to G.O. No 958 Financial, dated 11 March 1896 as the hospital assistant was employed in cholera duty. It is therefore proposed to sanction this allowance.
