a peon, but sub-overseers, or lower subordinates, are not so entitled - During the period named, Sub overseer Guana-muthu Pillai, ^{of the Chingleput Division} was placed in charge of an Overseer's section, & as he required the services of a peon, a man on the regular establishment was placed at his disposal. A temporary peon, employed under Overseer Ramakrishna Aiyangar, ^{of the same division} thus became ^{authorized} extra to the sanctioned scale, & the sanction of Govt. is required to admit this man's pay from the 1st July to the 21st April 1898. It is proposed to authorize the Eng to bear the charge.		4178C	22-9-98
The Eng points out a slight discrepancy in the dates given by the Sup ^r & the Govt. calls the attention of the latter office to the point.
