Sir,

I have the honor to bring to your notice that Supervisor C.N. Subramania Iyer when he came to Ootacamund from Bellary ^{inexpedient} engaged two carts for the conveyance of his luggage from Mettupalayam to Cooty at Rs 8 each, but did not obtain receipts for the amount at the time from the Cartmen. The Examiner of P.W. Accounts, takes objection to pass the sum in the absence of vouchers and requests sanction of Government. I therefore request you

No 683 d/14-12-97. will be good enough to obtain necessary sanction
w authorising the Examiner to admit the Charge.
Submitted to the Chief Engineer P.W.D. I have the honor to be,
for favor of sanction. Your most obed^t servant,

To

Your Office Note No.5582 C dated 18th.December 1897.

Temporary Upper Subordinate C.N.
Subramania Iyer, on Rs.100, made the following claims for the journey on transfer from Bellary.

I. Adoni to Mettapolliem by rail.

4 second class fares	Rs.69-0-0
3 third class fares	Rs.21-8-0
Luggage by rail	Rs.11-0-0
	Rs.101-8-0

2. Mettapolliem to Ooty by road.

5 miles at 6 annas	Rs.1-14-0
27 miles at 9 annas	Rs.15-3-0
Carriage of personal effects	Rs.8-0-0
	Rs.25-1-0

and audit was deferred for the following reasons under article 1205 C.S.R.

(1) Submission of a detailed statement explanatory of the charges incurred duly passed by the Executive Engineer for a specific amount.

2. Sanction of Government to the admission admission of charges for the journeys (which are supposed to represent actual charges incurred) in the absence of vouchers.

and Mr. Somers Eve deals only with claim 2, the journey by road, and asks that the Examiner may be authorized to admit the charges for 2 carts, without vouchers. It will be seen from the above that for the road journey, the temporary overseer has claimed the maximum amount admissible, viz: 3 times the ordinary rate of mileage, and, in addition, 1 cart for carriage of his luggage.

2. In his letter No. 649 of 11th. December 1897 Mr. Somers Eve states that two carts at Rs. 8 each were engaged by the overseer "for the conveyance of his luggage" but that he did not obtain receipts from the cartsmen. This is apparently incorrect as only 1 cart for carriage of luggage was charged for, and a voucher furnished for it, so that the other two carts for which vouchers were not obtained were apparently the carts engaged by the overseer for the locomotion of himself and family and for which he puts in a claim of Rs. 17-1-0. As the overseer obtained a voucher for the cart that, he states, took his luggage, he ought to have known that vouchers were necessary for the carts he used himself.

3. Attention on this point is invited to G.O. No. 700 W dated 28th. February 1898 in which ignorance of the rules, in a similar case, was not admitted as a ground for exemption.

to

Order. The charges for the journey up the ghats are very moderate, considering the family to be provided with carriage. The absence of vouchers may thus be condoned.
