Note. The Military authorities propose to transfer certain Military buildings at Vizagapatam, which are no required for Military purposes, to the P.W.D., & the Lieutenant General commanding the Forces requests to be informed whether this Dept. is willing to take them over. A list of the buildings in question is given in red ink in the paper tagged K.

The Supt. Engr. reports that the following buildings will be of use.
Item 2 in the list flagged K. - Old Main Guard - is now used for storage of Famine tools.

Item 4 Magazine May be useful as a storage godown, & now contains wood work for various buildings under construction.
Item 6 Commissariat arrack godown in use as a P.W.D. store & may be retained as such.

The other buildings cannot be utilised in any way, & there would be no use in taking them over, necessitating perhaps the employment of a watchman. It is proposed to inform the Lieut. General accordingly. The Military authorities will sell or dismantle the buildings if they don't want them.
