SIR,

As directed in G.O. no. 935 dated

J.2 29th August 1896, I have the honor to submi herewith for sanction a revised estimate and plan for the Quarters of the Hospital Assistant attached to the dispensary a Polavaram. The amount of the revised estimate was, according to the Deputy Tahsildar who prepared it, Rs 1000, but the Special Assistant Agent who considered the construction of a tiled roof supported by wooden posts over the pathway connecting the house wit the kitchen as unnecessary altered it accordingly and reduced the amount to Rs 957. I quite agree with the Special Assistant Agent in this reduction. Polavaram being a village within the river embankment and subject to inundation a house as now estimated is absolutely needed for the Hospital assistant and further reduction in the estimate is impossible.

2. It may be added here that on receipt of the G.O. quoted in para 1 supra, the Superintending Engineer 1st Circle was requested to revise the estimate as directed by Government but his fresh estimate having amounted to Rs. 2200, it was considered too high and the Dy: Tahsildar of Polavaram asked to revise it again so that the building might be more in keeping with those of the residents of the place. The present estimate has been prepared accordingly.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obdt Servt.
