No.	Date.
Mr. Peddie states that he heard in the P. W. D. Office at Bombay that his joining time could be extended by 10 days on application to the Govt. of Bombay. Mr. Peddie has, of course, misunderstood the matter. The Govt. of Bombay would not give him leave, & the 10 days referred to by him is not extension of joining time, but really "station leave" which is usually given to young officers on their first arrival in the country. The officers are considered to be on duty & the leave does not come under the provisions of the Audit Office.
Mr. Peddie believing that he would get 20 days joining time, proceeded on private business to Tundla where he was attacked with choleraic diarrhoea & he did not report himself at Madras till 6.12.98. Under the circumstances his joining time may be extended by 7 days under Art 199 of the Civil Service Regulations. Under this is done his salary for the period will be retrenched.

In reply to No^x 1898c dated 1st April of your office. I may state that on arrival at Bombay I reported myself at the P.W.D Office & heard there on inquiry, that the 10 days joining time would be extended to 20 on application to the Govt of Bombay.

I then went to Guedes on private affairs & applied for extension of joining time.

On Nov. 30th I received a telegram saying that my application was not sanctioned; but, I was unable to leave Tundla till the morning of Dec 3rd; owing to illness, the Doctor's Certificate for which, was handed in to the Govt of Madras on my arrival there on the 6th inst. I had to wait for the
