Sir,

I am directed to inquire whether the rule in Resolution of the Govt. of India, P.W.D., No. 374 G, dated 25th February 1895, prohibiting the deputation of members of a permanent establishment to temporary appointments on the pay in the same office, is intended to ~~cover more than~~ apply only to cases. The question has arisen in connection with the case of a permanent tracer on Rs 12 in the Tank Restoration Scheme Office, who has been appointed to a draftsman's post on Rs 35, which has been created temporarily in the same office to clear off arrears of mapping work which have accumulated. If the rule referred to above in question is applicable to tracers & draftsman as well I am to request that Mr. C. Venkatachella Nayudu may be exempted from the operation of the rule. This man has had considerable experience in the preparation of maps work, which requires a special aptitude & is therefore one of the most suitable candidates available for the temporary appointment mentioned.

I have &c.

For favour of opinion, with reference to the concluding remarks against item 1 of the statement,

(1) whether the Resolution of the Govt. of India printed in Gr. No. 537 W, dated 7th March, 1895, applies to tracers & draftsman, & (2) if so, whether this Govt. can sanction the appointment of the tracer in question to a higher temporary post in the same office.

The resolution of the Government of India communicated with G.O No.537 W dated 7th: March I895 is -- stated as applicable to "Office -- Establishment" it therefore applies to Tracers and Draftsman who belong to that establishment. As C.Venkatachella Nayudu is a permanent tracer on Rs: I2/- per mensem in the Central office Tank Restoration Scheme sanction of the Government of India would be necessary to his appointment as - temporary draftsman on higher pay -- (Rs: 35/- per mensem) in the same -- office.

2. This is the only possible interpretation of the rule as it -- stands, but I would suggest a reference to India as to whether the rule was intended to cover more than -- clerks, and if India's sanction to the -- proposed appointment be applied for I will pass provisionally the pay @ Rs: 35/- per mensem claimed on behalf of Venkatachella Nayudu from 5th: April

April I899 in the Head Office Tank -- Restoration Scheme bill for April I899
