READ—the following paper:—

From W. E. CLARKE, Esq., Acting Chief Presidency Magistrate, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 20th March 1899, No. 101.

About the end of September last, Mr. Chester, 2nd Presidency Magistrate, complained to me that the accommodation of the Presidency Magistrates' Court, Black Town, was inadequate, and that in consequence of the overcrowding, he and his colleague, Mr. Sultan Mohidin, were inconvenienced in the performance of their work. I inspected the Black Town Magistrates' Court, and satisfied myself of the reasonableness of the complaint. I immediately communicated with the Consulting Architect to Government, who drew up the accompanying plans and estimate for additions to the Magistrates' Court, Black Town. These I have now the honour to submit for the approval and sanction of Government. The plans and estimate were first sent to the Black Town Magistrates, who have approved of the same. I beg to state that the work is of an urgent nature.
