SIR,

I have the honor to bring to your notice that in G.O $\frac{319 W}{2.2.99}$, I was admitted to the Concessions allowed in G.O. Finance and Commerce Department: Resolution No. $\frac{5047P}{15.11.97}$

2 I wish to take furlough about May 1900, and avail myself of alternative (b) para 2 of above resolution – i.e., the first two months of furlough to be on full pay.

3. Under clause IV, para 3, of the above Resolution the Concessions ordinarily cease to be admissible after the expiry of two years from 15th November 1897.

4. I have the honor to point out that this rule is hard on those who wish to avail themselves of the furlough Concession, as it hardly admits of sufficient time to make the necessary arrangements for taking furlough within the limit of two years.

5. The list giving the names of those eligible for the Concessions, was not published until February 1899; and the grant of the Concession might be an important factor in determining whether furlough could be taken or not.

6. I would respectfully suggest that it would have been better, had the two years period commenced from the date on which the parties concerned were officially declared eligible for the Concessions.

7. Under Clause IV, para 3, it appears that it is within the power of the Local Government to make exceptions, and I trust that my case may receive consideration.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Mr. DeMorgan's Claim to Famine Concession

FOR ORDERS.

Mr. DeMorgan is one of the officers declared(1) eligible for the Concessions with respect to leave, granted in the Resolution of the Govt. of India, Finance and Commerce Dept., No. 5047 P.(2), dated 15th Novr. 1897, to officers employed, for not less than 5 months, on famine duties. He now requests that he may be exempted from the operation of clause (iv), para 3 of the aforesaid Resolution, which lays down that the Concessions will cease to be admissible after the expiry of two years from the date of the Resolution, that is, on and after the the 15th November next, except in Cases where owing to the exigencies of the public Service, officers had not been permitted to avail themselves of the Concessions within the prescribed period.

In support of his request, Mr. DeMorgan urges that although the Govt. of India announced, in November 1897, the grant of the Concessions, the list of officers of this Department, eligible for the Concessions, was not published till February 1899, and that the time thus allowed him, viz: from February 1899 to November 1899, to make his choice between the alternatives open to him under the Govt. of India Resolution, namely, (1) one month's extra privilege leave, and (2) full pay for the first two months of furlough for which half pay is ordinarily admissible, is not sufficient to enable him to elect, as he wishes to do, the latter alternative, for, he he Cannot arrange for taking furlough before May 1900. This plea seems untenable. For, the rules regarding the famine Concessions were communicated to Mr. DeMorgan in March 1898, and pending the publication, in February 1899, of the list of the P.W.D. Officers eligible for the Concessions, he had no reason to believe that the Concessions would be withheld from him. He Could therefore, if he wished it, have arranged to go on furlough during the Current year, or to take privilege leave. It apparently did not suit him to adopt either of these Courses. Thus, there appear to be no special reasons to warrant a recommendation being made to the Govt. of India to exempt him from the time limit prescribed for the Concessions in question.

I concur with this view. A.G.H. 26.6.99

Mr. De Morgan's case does not seem to be covered by the above.

Resolution.—The Governor-General in Council is pleased to announce that Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India has sanctioned the following concessions to officers employed on duties connected with famine relief or the plague, subject to the restrictions specified below:—

2. (i) To officers who have been so employed for a period of not less than five months—

either (a) one month's extra privilege leave, or (b) full pay instead of half pay for the first two months of furlough or other leave for which half pay is ordinarily admissible.

(ii) To officers so employed for a period of not less than ten months—either (a) two months' extra privilege leave, or (b) full pay instead of half pay for the first four months of furlough or other leave as above.

3. The grant of the above concessions is subject to the following explanations and limitations:—

(i) The concessions are admissible in the case of famine duty, in any province in which there has been famine, and in the case of plague duty in the Presidency of Bombay including Sind.

(ii) They are not admissible to any officer whose duty in connection with famine or plague has not, in the opinion of the Local Government, been so unusually arduous as to render him deserving of them, or who has been specially appointed to such duty and has been remunerated during the performance of it by special salary or allowances.

(iii) The extra privilege leave admissible under this resolution may be taken in combination with privilege leave earned under the ordinary rules, provided that the total amount of privilege leave so taken at one time shall not exceed three months. Any balance of privilege leave which cannot be taken in consequence of the three months' limit will remain at credit to be taken under the ordinary rules.

(iv) The concessions will ordinarily cease to be admissible after the expiry of two years from the date of this Resolution, but may, with the consent of the Local Government, be carried on beyond that date in cases where the exigencies of the public service have necessitated the refusal of leave when applied for and have thus prevented the grant of the full concessions earned within the prescribed period.

(v) Any officer eligible for the concessions may choose between the alternatives (a) and (b) of paragraph 2 at the time he applies for leave.

Order—Ordered, that this Resolution be communicated to the departments of the Government of India; to the several Local Governments and Administrations; to the Heads of Departments under the Finance Department; to the Comptroller and Auditor General; and to all Accountants-General and Comptrollers.

Ordered, also, that the Resolution be published in the Gazette of India.

Resolution—No. 31, dated 18th January 1898.

In the above order concessions granted to officers employed on duties connected with famine relief or plague are announced. The concessions, which may be availed of at any time within two years, are inadmissible to an officer whose duty has not, in the opinion of the Local Government, been so unusually arduous as to render him deserving of them, or who has been specially appointed to such duty and has been remunerated during the performance of it by special salary or allowances. It is desirable that the names of those entitled to the concessions should be registered at once so as to avoid difficulties in the future. Each Collector will therefore call upon all officers in his district who desire to establish their claims to the concessions on account of famine service to apply to him not later than February 15th. In cases in which officers are now no longer serving in the districts in which they were employed on famine duty, their applications should be submitted through the Collector of the district in which that duty was carried out. Collectors should give their opinion as to the eligibility of the officer for the concession, bearing in mind the restrictions imposed in paragraph 3 (ii) of the Resolution of the Government of India. The period of duty entitling to the concession should be distinctly specified. The Commissioner of Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture, as head of the recent relief operations, will then submit the applications for the orders of Government.

2. Collectors should make it widely known that those who do not avail themselves of this opportunity to register their claims will be likely to experience delay and difficulty in substantiating their claims on a subsequent occasion.

3. Any officer who claims the concession on the strength of service in another Presidency or Province must substantiate his claims before the Local Government under which he served.

Communicated to the Superintending Engineers, I and III Circles, who will submit to the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department, lists of officers and subordinates of the Public Works Department who are considered eligible for the concessions granted in Government of India Resolution No. 5047 P., dated 15th November 1897.

2. The Government of India Resolution allows the grant of the concessions to officers "employed on duties connected with famine relief," that is apparently to all officers, whether executive or not, employed on duties connected with famine relief. The admissibility of the concessions to any such officer depends, however, on three conditions, viz. :—

(i) that there has been famine in the province in which the officer was serving;

(ii) that the duties performed have been unusually arduous, and such as to render him deserving of the concessions;

(iii) that he has not been specially appointed to such duty and remunerated by special salary or allowances during the performance of it.

3. In submitting the lists, Superintending Engineers should give their opinion as to the eligibility of each officer or subordinate for the concession, bearing in mind the restrictions above stated.

In G.O., No. 620 W., dated 9th March 1898, the Superintending Engineers, I and III Circles, were requested to submit lists of officers and subordinates of the Public Works Department who are considered eligible for the concessions granted in Government of India resolution No. 5047 P., dated 15th November 1897, to officers employed on duties connected with famine relief. The Superintending Engineers mentioned have submitted the lists called for, and the period during which each officer and subordinate was employed on famine duty has been checked by the Examiner. His Excellency the Governor in Council considers that the duties on which the officers and subordinates mentioned in the appendix to these proceedings were employed during the late famine, fulfil the conditions laid down by the Government of India, and is accordingly pleased to admit them to the concessions allowed.
