FOR ORDERS.

In February last, the Examiner of Public Works Accounts applied for the sanction of Government to the Entertainment of an additional Clerk on Rs 50 per mensem in the Establishment Branch of his office, but no valid reasons justifying the immediate necessity for the additional hand having been adduced, sanction was refused and the Examiner was told to renew his application when the necessity actually arose. vide Note for orders attached to G.O. No. 1490 W. dy 9th June 1899.

2. In his office note No. 766 A/E, dy 17th June 1899, the Examiner represented that one of the Senior senior accountants in the Audit Branch of the office had reported himself sick, that there was no immediate prospect of his returning to duty, that all the sections of the office were hard pressed, and that the additional clerk applied for was necessary, if all the work of the office was to be properly done, and requested that sanction might be accorded to the entertainment of the clerk from the 29th June 1899. The Examiner was asked in office note No. 2867C dy 23rd June 1899 whether temporary promotions from grade to grade and the appointment of an additional hand for the last place had been or would be made vice the senior accountant reported to be sick.

3. The Examiner in his office note No. 804 A/E. dy 23rd June 1899 admits that temporary promotions have in due course been made in the place of the sick accountant, but states that as it is difficult to replace the man, and as a 1st grade accountant retires on the 29th June, the necessary changes must considerably weaken the office, especially as they involve getting senior men in from Divisions and sending others out to take their places. These changes are of common occurrence in every organised Establishment which is never strengthened on such occasions. The weakness complained of by the Examiner will last only until the transferred accountants assume their new duties and is not a valid ground for the entertainment of an additional hand.

4. As the Examiner however states that no part of his office is without his close supervision, that he is convinced that there is nowhere the least disinclination for hard work, that he has been short of a Dy. Examiner since the departure of Mr. Lee on the 25th April 1899, that

Yes, temporary promotion from grade to grade have in due course been made, but the sick Accountant referred to is difficult to replace, and as Mr. Dunhill accountant Ist: grade and Assistant Examiner retires on the 29th: Instant the necessary changes must of course considerably weaken the office - especially as they involve getting other senior men in from divisions and ~~lending~~ sending others out to take their place. It seems necessary that I should assure you that no part of this office is without my close supervision and that I am convinced that no where is there the least disinclination for hard work. Since the departure of Mr.Lee on the 25th April 1899 I have been short of a Deputy Examiner on Rs: 400 /- to Rs: 600/- per month, and now that my only Deputy Mr.Lacey has gone out on inspection duty I am personally very hard pressed, much more so than is usual in such an office.

I only mention this as my despatch of Mr.Lacey for inspections-taking his work upon myself-is scarcely compatible with my call for a fifty ruppes clerk without any necessity for one.

that owing to his only Deputy Mr. Lacey having gone on inspection duty, he is personally very hard pressed, and that his having taken upon himself the duty of Mr Lacey by despatching him for inspection is scarcely compatible with the demand for a fifty rupees clerk, without the necessity for me. orders are solicited as to whether the Entertainment of the Clerk may be sanctioned for a period of 6 months.

Mr Rainier is not the man best to appeal for anything unnecessary, being extremely conscientious in the discharge of his duties. I recommend that the Clerk's office may be sanctioned for 6 months from 1.8 until the numerous alterations in his office have ceased to have standing effect in the return of work
