SIR,

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 793, dated the 19th April 1899, and in reply to say that the Government of India do not desire that cases in which the families of police officers who die of plague in the execution of plague duty are recommended for pensions should be submitted for their sanction. The cases of the 9 constables mentioned in your letter should accordingly be disposed of under the orders of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor.

2. I am at the same time to invite attention to the letter from this Department noted in the margin, and to say that the instructions it contains regarding the exercise of great discretion and care in the grant of family plague pensions should be carefully followed in cases disposed of by the Local Government in accordance with the present orders.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

A. H. L. FRASER,

Offg. Secretary to the Government of India.

24th July 1899

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 103, dated the 10th April 1899, and in reply to say that the Government of India do not desire that cases in which the transfer of officers who are of value in the execution of public duty are recommended for consideration should be submitted for their sanction. The cases of the 9th contingent mentioned in your letter should accordingly be disposed of under the orders of His Majesty the Lieutenant-Governor.

I am at the same time to invite attention to the fact that this Department is not in a position to make any recommendation in the exercise of its discretion and care in the grant of leave, but that the Government should be consulted in cases where it is desired to recommend a transfer in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
A. H. L. FRASER,
Off. Secretary to the Government of India.
