Extract from Proceedings of the Official Visitors of the Government Lunatic Asylum, Vizagapatam, dated Waltair the 29th June 1899:-

VI. Inspection of buildings.

We understand the Superintending Engineer has condemned the Hospital Assistants' Quarters, and on hearing from him Government should be addressed as to the preparation of estimates for rebuilding.

The Executive Engineer should be addressed regarding the estimates for single rooms for females which are very urgently required.

Male cottage No. I and two male single rooms have been taken over from the Public Works Department, repaired, and male Cottage No. II and two more male single rooms have been made over to the Public Works Department for repairs.

The new outside doors of No. I male cottage and two single rooms are not of the original pattern and should be provided with venetian shutters.
