From The Examiner P.W. Accounts
Madras & Coorg

Order No. 2153 W d/14.8.99

Sanctioned with the exception of the Step recommended in the case of M.R.Ry. R. Krishnaswami Rao, whose promotion must be deferred till the report on T. K. Narayanaswami Mudaliar, said to have been called for from the Suptg. Engineer, VI Circle is received.

2. It is observed that M.R.Ry. R. Krishnaswami Rao although nominated Accounts clerk of the III Circle has not joined that Circle for want of a vacancy & thus has never really been an accounts ~~clerk~~ at all. HM

FOR ORDERS

The Examiner submits for the approval of Govt. certain promotions which he proposes to make in the subordinate Accounts Branch.

2. Before according approval there is one appointment in the statement which requires notice viz: that of the last man on the list R. Kistnasawmi Row. This man is shown as the Accounts Clerk of the III Circle, but as a matter of fact he is now is now a clerk in the E. that Office. He has been nominated by the Supdg. Engr., III Circle, as the Accounts Clerk of that circle, but there is no vacancy for him in that circle so he still remains in the Examiner's Office.

3. Another point requiring consideration is that Govt. in G.O. No 1673 W of 28.6.97 decided that T.K. Narayanaswami Mudaliar (No 4 in the Nominal roll of accounts clerks submitted by the Examiner) should continue as the accounts clerk of the VI Circle. The Examiner states that the Supt. Engr. of that circle has been asked to submit a recommendation roll regarding him, & that on receipt of his reply the question as to what position he should occupy and any reversions in consequence will be taken up separately & submitted for orders. The Examiner adds that R. Kistnaswami Row was the senior Divisional Accounts clerk prior to the receipt of the orders on the case of T.K. Narayanaswami Mudaliar, but there can be no question that if the reversion of the latter to the clerical band had not been ordered in G.O. No 2843# W of 8.11.98. he would have been by far the senior. There seems to be no reason why the promotion of R Kistnaswami Row to be Temporary Accountant on Rs 60 should not be deferred till the question of T.K. Narayanaswami Mudr's position is settled. If the Supt. Engr's report is favourable, this temporary Accountantship will be available for him & no reversions will apparently be necessary. But if the report is unfavourable the Examiner will no doubt decline to recommend him & T.K. Narayanaswami Mudr. will have to remain as the Accounts Clerk of the VI Circle to the end of his service probably. He is now 50 years of age. It is submitted that approval to the rest of the promotions proposed by the Examiner be accorded.

No vacancy in the Rs: 40/- to 50/- grade occurred in the 3rd: Circle but as R.Kristnaswami Rao B.A. was duly approved by the Superintending Engineer, he has -- been regarded nevertheless as the nominated accounts clerk of No.III Circle, -- though counting as a clerk against the - scale for this office Vide also my O.N.No. 814 A/E dated 27th: June 1899.

2. I enclose for your information, a list of the accounts clerks now on the roll, with remarks as to how they stand at present- It will be seen that Kristnaswami Rao was the senior E Divisional accounts - clerk prior to the receipt of orders on Narainsamy Moodr's case, Vide G.O.No.1673 W dated 28th: June 1899, but please see remarks against the latter's name in the list.
