With reference to G.O.No.847, Judicial, dated that 31st May 1899, I am directed to state/the High Court% agrees with a proposal made by the District Judge that the Court of the District Munsif of Trichinopoly should be located in that portion of the District Court-house, which until recently was occupied by the Subordinate Judge.

2. The District Judge has also proposed that the Court of the District Munsif of Srirangam be removed to Srirangam, but the High Court is not prepared to accept this suggestion and prefers that the Court of the Srirangam Munsif should remain as at present in Trichinopoly.

3. In these circumstances it appears unnecessary to build new Courts for both the District Munsifs as ordered in the G.O. under reference and the High Court therefore recommends that the new Court-house be built for the District Munsif of Sriranga alone.
